

NO LET-UP IN ALLIED THRUST AT BROKEN HUNS

Crown Prince May Abandon Rear Guard and Supplies. British Push Imminent.

Washington, July 22.—There will be little let-up in the present American-French offensive until the Germans reach their main line of defense trenches. While the element of surprise no longer is a factor in the fighting between the Allies and the Marne, the assaulting allied forces are taking every possible advantage of the shattered morale of their German opponents. It is believed here that before the present operations come to an end the casualties among the enemy, and the prisoners and war materials taken, will prove a record for results on the western front.

Army officers continued very hopeful today. With the Hun lines smashed all over an enormous front, Chateau-Thierry in allied hands and the line advances seven miles on the Chateau-Thierry Salient, front everything favored the attacking forces. It was believed that in order to withdraw his heavily concentrated units the crown prince will be compelled to abandon a great part of his rear guard and most of his big guns and war materials. All of the official reports which have reached this city indicate that the German forces are practically demoralized as a result of the surprising swiftness with which the present series of assaults is being administered.

There is some expectation here that the British forces in the north may attack in the near future. Advice reaching here indicate that it has been necessary for the German commanders there to abandon their assault plans and to send reinforcements to aid the crown prince. Whether they have weakened their lines sufficient to allow an attack by the British the next few days probably will determine.

IT STOPPED MY SUFFERING

Said Mrs. Jaynes, Speaking of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Anderson, S. C.—"I got into an awful condition with what the doctors said was an organic displacement. I would have pains so badly that they would have to put hot clothes on me and give me morphine. The doctor said I would never be any better without an operation and I would never have any children without it. A neighbor who knew what your medicine would do advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did so and it made me a well woman and the next September I gave birth to a healthy baby boy."

—Mrs. SALLIE JAYNES, 37 Lyon St., Anderson, S. C.

The letters which we are constantly publishing from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM AUGUSTA MAN

Mr. George W. Manning, Augusta, Georgia, Praises VI-TO-NA.

This morning's mail brought the following letter from Mr. G. W. Manning, 733 Bohler street, Augusta, Ga.:

Mr. Manning is, from point of service, one of the oldest and most popular engineers on the C. & W. C. railroad. He pulls the fast passenger train from Augusta to Spartanburg. The following is a portion of this letter addressed to Mr. Henry:

"Please find enclosed postoffice money order to pay for the VI-TO-NA you sent me. Also please duplicate the order at once. I want to thank you for putting this great Mineral Water Remedy within my reach, for it has done me more good than anything I have ever taken, and I have taken many preparations."

(Mr. Manning here mentions some preparations very widely advertised, but says VI-TO-NA "beats them all.")

"When I saw you in Greenwood, Mr. Henry, I was in bad shape, as I told you. I was just about down and out with kidney and bladder trouble, also suffered from rheumatism, and somehow I just felt like I had struck the right thing after you explained to me what VI-TO-NA really is.

"I felt the day I saw you that I ought to be at home in bed, and I hardly know myself now that I am feeling so much better. I don't lose sleep any more now, my appetite has returned, and I feel like a brand new man.

"I am boosting VI-TO-NA wherever I go."

VI-TO-NA is one sale in Chattanooga exclusively by Jo Anderson Drug Company.

Buy a HOME Be Independent

Owning a home spells one great word—I-N-D-E-P-E-N-D-E-N-C-E.

Without owning your own home there can be no independence.

All the whole world is fighting for democracy and independence.

Yet home life is the greatest factor in your existence and you are no more independent as a family than Serbia is as a nation if you do not own your own home.

Who wants to be subject to the whims of a landlord; to take what he gives you? Who wants leaking roofs; rooms that are not properly papered, when for practically the same money, with a little get-up and push, you can have much better quarters—quarters that are your very own.

Be independent. Assert your independence. Get a home of your own. It's better to take the right step now than to wait ten years and say "I wish I had."

Don't be an "I-wish-I-had"; be an "I-do" sort of fellow and get that home. See any good real estate man. Buy a home and be independent.
